Summary of teaching experiences

Undergraduate level

- 1988-1990: Teaching basic logistics in BIs bachelor programme, in particular within themes such as distribution, forecasting, inventory planning and conceptual frameworks for describing and analysing logistics in companies.
- 1990: Supervisor on case presentations and evaluations in basic logistics course at Master of Management (siviløkonom).
- 1992-1997: Responsible for the national course in Basic logistic running in all BIs bachelor programmes throughout the country – responsible for the development of the course and keeping the teachers up to date on literature etc.
- 1994-1996: Developed and responsible together with a colleague for the specialisation in logistics in the 3rd year in BIs bachelor-program. Teaching, supervision and evaluation.
- 1994-1997: Partly responsible for company specific undergraduate courses in basic logistics. Teaching, supervision and evaluation.
- 2000-2001: Responsible for course in Strategy and Logistics at 3rd year specialisation in Business Logistics. Teaching, supervision and evaluation.

Master level

- 1990: Responsible for developing and running specialisation course in Case course in logistics. Teaching, supervision and evaluation.
- 1992-1993: Responsible with colleague for developing and running specialisation course in Strategic Logistics. Teaching, supervision and evaluation
- From 1993: Supervisor on master theses within logistics.
- 1993-2000: Responsible for thesis seminar for students in the logistics specialisation.
- 1994-2000: Teacher at executive program – Master of Management in Logistics and Purchasing
- 1994-97: Teacher in specialisation course on Transport- and distribution planning
- 1997: Responsible for specialisation course in Strategic Logistics. Teaching, supervision and evaluation
- 1998-2000: Responsible for developing and running specialisation course in Environmental Management and Logistics. Teaching, supervision and evaluation.
- 2001-2004: Responsible for specialisation in logistics (siviløkonom).
- 2001-2004: Responsible for developing and running the 2-year Master of Science Specialisation in Logistics: Supply Chains and Networks including courses in Distribution and Third Party Logistics and Resources in Inter-organizational Networks. Also running the thesis seminar for all students in addition to

- supervising groups on their Master's thesis particular on themes such as distribution and reverse logistics.
- 2003-: Guest teacher at the Master (DESS & DEA) programme at CRET-LOG, Centre de REcherche sur le Transport et la LOGistique, Université de la Méditerranée. 3 days per year during the years 2003, 2004, 2006.
- 2003: Guest teacher at the Master of International Management at University of Toulouse, five days.
- 2007-: Have developed and will teach in an executive programme for the construction industry called 'Strategic Management in the Construction and Building Industry'
- 2008-: Responsible for specialisation in Logistics: Supply Chains and Networks (master-programme) including courses in Distribution and Third Party Logistics and Supply Chain Management and Strategic Issues in Logistics Also running the thesis seminar for all students in addition to supervising groups on their Master's thesis particular on themes such as distribution, environmental logistics and humanitarian logistics.
- 2009-: Development and teaching as master of science course in humanitarian logistics together with colleagues in the Nordic countries.

Doctoral level

- 1996: Participated in development of PhD. courses in logistics on a Nordic basis-
- 1998: Taught Supply chain management and the Environment at PhD. course in environmental management organised by BI NSM.
- 2003: Lecturer/discussant in doctoral workshop for European doctoral students in logistics in Paris 25th-27th of June.
- 2003: Lecturer at PhD. course in Logistics - Turku School of Economics, January 2003
- 2003-2004: Lecturer at PhD. course in CRET-LOG, Centre de REcherche sur le Transport et la LOGistique, Université de la Méditerranée
- 2006: Lecturer at PhD. course in Methodology in Logistics, organised by Copenhagen Business School.
